

1 run his mill. Of course, everybody took water down to
2 him until this last man had moved in there he don't take
3 water down. But, there was three (3') foot of water come
4 down that all the time.

5 Q. The raceway?

6 A. Yeah, the raceway. That's the reason why I can't
7 understand why it isn't there. I don't understand that.

8 Q. Well, I won't explain to you.

9 A. I don't like to have any trouble with anybody, I'd
10 like to agree with everybody, I'd sooner give somebody
11 something than take from him.

12 Q. How much land is in dispute between the two (2) of you?

13 A. It ain't hardly worth the snap of your finger.

14 Q. In other words, it's just a few feet?

15 A. Well, the first line when they run across they took a
16 couple acres of my field. Now, the next time they come
17 along...

18 Q. That would have been Rothenhoeffer?

19 A. Yeah.

20 Q. But now the latest survey...

21 A. The later he's going down the ditch now. How can
22 anybody put a line down in three (3') foot of water.

23 Q. There's no water there, of course?

24 A. No, the line's still there.

25 Q. So, in effect, you're saying that the line should run
26 on the southern side of the raceway?

27 A. It calls for twelve (12') foot on either side of the 28 water lines to repair the raceway, that's what the deed
